Don,

With reference to your 7 September memorandum to me suggesting the possible use of senior operations officers during CT training, I have attached a copy of two memoranda for your information--the first is from [redacted] who runs the upfront Headquarters training program for the CTs, the second memorandum is

As you will note, some things that relate to your suggestions are being done, and the possibility of doing more will be explored.

Thanks for taking the time to pass on your thoughts and observations. They are always welcome.
